

OBJECTIVES:

- Identify the components and tools needed for network cable preparation.
- Differentiate between straight-through and crossover cable configurations.
- Arrange the eight wires according to the correct T568A and T568B wiring standards.
- Create and test a functional straight-through and crossover network cable following the correct wiring sequence and safety procedures.